Faith also qualifies for benefits from the Veterans Administration and for the preparation of military chaplains.

HISTORY OF THE SEMINARY

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary began as a graduate program in 1982. At that time, Faith Baptist Bible College replaced its Bachelor of Theology program with the Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies program under the direction of Dr. Robert Domokos. Within a few years, additional M.A. programs in Biblical and Theological Studies were added. Several of the Faith faculty members came to the further conviction that Iowa needed a fundamentalist seminary with a full Master of Divinity program. In 1985 a faculty committee drew up plans and curriculum for such a school, and the Board of Directors in their January 1986 meeting authorized the school to proceed with those plans.

The seminary immediately began publishing the Faith Pulpit in January 1986, and the seminary opened for classes in the fall of 1986. That same year, the school merged with Denver Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary, and ten Denver students were among the thirty in the first classes of FBTS.

Dr. Robert G. Delnay served as the first dean of the seminary (1986–1990, 1995–1997) and Dr. Elvin K. Mattison as the second dean (1990–1993). Dr. George Houghton served as interim dean during two periods (1993–1995, 1997). In January of 1998 Dr. John Hartog III, a graduate of the seminary, was appointed dean and served until 2005. Dr. Ernie Schmidt became the acting dean in 2005 and the dean in 2008. In 2013 Dr. Douglas Brown became the dean.

MISSION AND GOALS

Institutional Statement

The mission of Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary, as a fundamental Baptist institution of Christian higher education, is to prepare vocational Christian workers and ministry leaders for local churches throughout the world.

Seminary Statement

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary provides an advanced Biblical, theological, and ministerial education at the graduate level with the goal of preparing Bible expositors to serve effectively in Christian ministry through leadership positions within Baptist fundamentalism.

Convictions

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary holds the historical doctrines that come from an inspired and inerrant Bible literally interpreted. It is a fundamentalist school, attempting to base everything on the plain statements of the Bible, affirming both traditional dispensational premillennialism and separatism. It holds to Baptist polity, including congregational church government, local church offices of pastor and deacon, the importance of the local church, believer's baptism by immersion as a prerequisite for local church membership, and the importance of worldwide, indigenous missions. It is noncharismatic, believing that sign gifts, such as tongues, were temporary and have passed away. It presses the claims of a sovereign Lord who deserves our devotion, our walk of faith, our daily quiet time with Him, our distaste for the world, and our evidence of the Spirit's fruit in our lives.

Seminary Goals

1. All graduates should evidence a commitment to the Lord and to His work by

- a. demonstrating to the faculty and to the students' pastors a close relationship with God;
- b. exhibiting to the faculty and to the students' pastors exemplary Christian character; and
- c. serving faithfully and effectively within a local church during the time of seminary enrollment.

2. All graduates should evidence awareness of the history and current status of Baptist fundamentalism and should demonstrate an appreciation for its distinctives by

- a. completing a course in the history of fundamentalism; and
- b. developing discernment and resolute doctrinal convictions as evidenced in course assignments.

3. M.Div. graduates should evidence an ability to serve effectively in vocational Christian ministry by

- a. completing prescribed courses in church ministry;
- b. successfully completing a ministry internship;
- c. providing satisfactory essay answers on the ministry assessment exam;
- d. exhibiting sensitivity to others and to their needs throughout their seminary training; and
- e. providing satisfactory answers during the senior oral exam.

4. M.Div. graduates should evidence an advanced knowledge of the Bible by

- a. completing prescribed courses in Biblical studies and in the Biblical languages;
- b. demonstrating increased competency on the cognitive assessment exam; and
- c. providing satisfactory answers during the senior oral exam.

5. M.Div. graduates should evidence an advanced knowledge of the systematic truths of the Bible and the history of Christianity by

- a. completing prescribed courses in systematic theology and church history;
- b. demonstrating increased competency on the cognitive assessment exam; and
- c. providing satisfactory answers during the senior oral exam.

6. M.Div. graduates should evidence an ability to communicate effectively and appropriately the meaning of scripture by

- a. completing prescribed courses in homiletics; and
- b. preaching an exemplary senior sermon in seminary chapel that is logical in design, expository in nature, and compelling in delivery.

Philosophy of Education

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary recognizes the truths of God as absolute. Therefore, through the educational process, the faculty members recognize it to be their responsibility, as Christian leaders under the ministry of the Holy Spirit, both to impart truth and to train students to discern truth. This process involves helping students recognize the importance of a close walk with the Lord and a regular study of God's Word. It includes training in the proper principles of interpretation and study of the languages in which the Scriptures were originally written.

We also believe that one of the best things we can do for future Christian leaders is to impart wisdom and understanding, and we plan our courses to that end. We believe that Christian leaders should be men and women of integrity, and we purpose in class and out of class that all studies and all personal contact encourage that kind of character. We believe that Christian leaders should have a personal acquaintance with Jesus Christ, and we hold that this knowledge transcends all other knowledge.

DOCTRINAL AND POSITIONAL STATEMENTS

Doctrinal Statement

Students are required to sign a statement of assent to this doctrinal statement during the process of matriculation and at graduation.

The Bible

We believe in the verbal, plenary inspiration by God of the original manuscripts of the Old and New Testament Scriptures, and that they are inerrant and infallible in all matters.

The Trinity

We believe the one true and living God is one in essence, existing as three eternal persons Who are revealed to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, equal in every divine perfection, yet executing distinct but harmonious offices.

Jesus Christ

We believe that Jesus Christ was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary; that He is One Person possessing two natures and thus is true God and true man; that He lived a sinless life and gave Himself as a perfect substitutionary sacrifice for the sins of all humanity; that He arose bodily from the grave, ascended into Heaven where He is seated on the right hand of God interceding for His people and will return to the earth in keeping with His promises.

The Holy Spirit

We believe that the Holy Spirit is the third Person of the Triune Godhead; that He has been and will continue to be active throughout eternity; that, in gracious dealing with humanity, He has inspired the writing of the Scriptures; that He is in the world today convincing of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment; that He is calling out a people for God among the Jews and Gentiles; that He regenerates those who believe, places them into the Body of Christ, indwells them and produces in them the fruit of the Spirit; and that He calls individuals to Christian service and empowers and directs them in that service.

We believe that God established the church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Himself being the cornerstone, and that He confirmed the apostolic message with signs and wonders in that era. Having served their divine purpose, the revelatory and sign gifts of the Spirit, including tongues and the gift of healing, have ceased. We believe that God continues to hear and answer prayers for the sick and afflicted according to His sovereign will.

Creation

We accept the Genesis account of the six days of the creation week as a historical record and believe that the universe with all that is in it was created by God; and we affirm that living creatures were made according to their kinds and were not produced by some process of evolution.

We believe that marriage was divinely ordained to be the lifelong and exclusive union of one man and one woman, and we affirm that the Scriptures prohibit all sexual intimacy outside of this Biblical, marital relationship. We believe that God created both male and female, and that He designed gender distinctions between men and women, including the Biblically-defined and distinctive roles of husband and wife. Since gender distinctions are rooted in divine order, changing or disguising one's inherited sex (and correlated gender) reflective of this order transgresses God's design. We believe in the sanctity of life of all human persons, including the unborn, ailing, and aging.

The Spirit Realm

We believe that God created an innumerable company of sinless beings known as angels; that many of these continue in their holy state and are the ministers of God; that an angelic leader now known as Satan (or the Devil) and many others rebelled against God; that these fallen angels, though defeated in the cross of Christ, still continue to oppose God and His work; that they will ultimately be judged by God and cast into the Lake of Fire to suffer everlasting punishment, which is their righteous due.

Humanity

We believe that human beings, male and female, were originally created in the image and after the likeness of God; that through uncoerced disobedience Adam fell from his original state, became totally depraved in nature, was separated from God and came under condemnation and the sentence of death; that because of the unity of the human race and the natural headship of Adam, all humans (Jesus Christ only excepted) are born with sin natures and have come under the same consequences of sin.

Salvation

We believe that salvation is all of grace through the substitutionary work of Jesus Christ Who paid the full redemptive price and fully satisfied God's righteous demands by suffering the death penalty for humanity's guilt, and that He imputes His righteousness, thus reconciling sinners to God; that salvation is made effective only upon the exercise of personal faith in Jesus Christ, which faith is not a meritorious work but possible only by the grace of God.

We believe that salvation includes justification, regeneration, adoption into the family of God, sanctification (positional, progressive, and final) and glorification; that one who is truly born again will be preserved by divine grace, being kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Sanctification

We believe that every saved person is positionally in Christ, completely set apart for God; that in experience the saved person retains a sin nature, which is not eradicated in this life, and thus a believer's present state is no more perfect than daily experience; that there is a progressive sanctification wherein the saved person is to grow in grace and into Christlikeness by the unhindered power of the Holy Spirit; that when Christ appears the saved person will be fully sanctified, with personal state conforming to positional standing.

We believe that progressive sanctification involves separation not only from ungodly living but also from ungodly teaching; that though we love all individuals and seek their salvation, there are areas in which we cannot have fellowship with unbelievers; that, in areas of ecclesiastical fellowship, it may be necessary to separate even from other believers in Christ, if they in turn maintain fellowship with unbelievers.

Dispensations

We believe that the dispensations are not ways of salvation, which has always been by grace through faith, but are stewardships by which God administers His purpose on earth through humanity under varying responsibilities; that changes in dispensational dealings depend upon changed situations in which humanity is found in relation to God due to human failures and God's judgments; that, though several dispensations cover the entirety of human history, only three of these are the subject of extended revelation in Scripture; that these three (Mosaic Law, Grace, and millennial Kingdom) are distinct and are not to be intermingled or confused.

The Church

We believe the Church which is Christ's body is composed of all true believers (those who have been born again through a personal acceptance of Christ as Savior) from Pentecost to the rapture; that this Church was brought into being on the day of Pentecost by Spirit baptism, placing into one body all who were believers at that time; that on the day of Pentecost and since that time others have been and are being added to this church; that at the rapture this Church will be complete and will be caught up to be united with Christ as His Bride never to be separated from Him.

We believe that local churches are gatherings of professing believers in given communities, organized for the purposes of united worship, fellowship, administration of the ordinances (baptism and Lord's Supper), edification, discipline, and effective promotion of the work of Christ throughout the world; that such local churches should be limited in membership to those who are born again, desire to follow Christ in obedience and have been immersed; that Christ is the supreme Head and every member has direct access to Him and is responsible to seek His will; that the two New Testament offices recognized in such churches are to be those of pastor (also known as bishop or elder) and deacon, both referencing qualified, godly men; that government is congregational with every member responsible to vote in keeping with his or her understanding of the will of Christ; that each local church is responsible directly to Christ and not to some other local church or organization; that there is value in fellowship and cooperation with other local churches of like convictions.

Civil Government

We believe that civil government was instituted by God and is still His means of maintaining peace and order among humans; that believers here on earth are responsible in the area of civil government and should participate in it to promote and preserve good order in human society; that civil governments and churches (and fellowships of churches) are distinct from each other, must be organizationally separated from each other, and neither must seek to control the other.

Things to Come

We believe that the Scriptures foretell certain events among which are the following:

• Rapture of the Church

We believe that Jesus Christ will return to the atmosphere of this earth; that the dead in Christ will rise first, then believers who are still living will be caught up together with them to meet the Lord in the air and to ever be with the Lord; that the rapture is the next event on the revealed calendar and that no prophecy need be fulfilled before this occurs.

• Tribulation

We believe that the rapture of the Church will be followed on earth by Israel's seventieth week; that, though there will be salvation, this will be a time of great judgments, the latter part being known as the Great Tribulation.

• Second Coming

We believe that following the tribulation, Christ will return to the earth with His glorified saints to establish the millennial Kingdom; that during the 1,000 years of peace and prosperity Satan will be bound and Christ will reign with a rod of iron; that at the end of the Millennium Satan will be released for a short time, deceive many and lead them in final rebellion, but be destroyed with his armies.

• Eternal State

We believe that the unsaved of all ages will be resurrected and together with the evil angels will be finally judged and condemned to everlasting conscious punishment in hell; that all the saved of all ages in glorified bodies will enjoy everlasting blessing in the presence of God.

Historic Position Statement

In its earliest days, the school was a nondenominational Bible institute. However, in 1945 the school aligned itself with the American Council of Christian Churches, and in 1953 it added the word "Baptist" to its name. It began offering degrees in 1960 and at that time declared itself a Bible college. In 1986 a graduate school was added.

For more than half a century, the school has held a fundamental, separatist, dispensational Baptist position. It has been known for its conservative stand throughout this period of time and has not wavered from it. The school has always held to the fundamentals of the faith: the inspiration, infallibility, and inerrancy of the Scripture; and the virgin birth, deity, substitutionary death, bodily resurrection, and visible, imminent return of Christ. The school has always been known for teaching personal separation from the world in dress code, music, and personal entertainment. Since the 1950s, the school has taught secondary ecclesiastical separation, has unashamedly identified itself as Baptist, and has willingly stood for the historic Baptist position. It has been the intent of the school to provide an anchor for those who agree with this stand. At the same time, the school's first allegiance has been to Christ and the Bible and not to ecclesiastical organizations or fellowships. It has also been reaffirmed by the Board, the administration, and the faculty that the objective of the school is to train men and women for leadership positions in Christian service in keeping with its declaration as a Bible college and seminary.

As times and trends have changed, the school has sought to maintain a consistent conservative position. Position papers by the faculty reflect the stand of the school on various issues. Among these are reaffirmation of the traditional view of dispensationalism which has consistently been taught at this school, assertion that God has a specific will for each believer, rejection of Lordship salvation, affirmation of a noncharismatic position, and an emphasis on God-honoring, conservative music.

The Board of Directors of FBBC&TS has affirmed the historical position of the school as our continuing commitment. It is our earnest desire to maintain our historical purpose and tradition and to continue to train students to be leaders in fundamentalist Christianity. We intend to stand for the great principles of Bible-believing Christianity, our separatist Baptist heritage, and the authority of the inerrant Word of God. While many educational institutions are softening their stand and broadening their fellowship to be more inclusive, we intend to militantly honor Christ and the purity of the Church, even if we must do so independently. We praise God for the help and support of our many friends who also hold to these principles. Many independent Baptist churches and individuals have expressed an interest in Faith because of our strong stand for Biblical truth. We invite these brethren to stand with us in these critical times. We believe in the power of God, but we also know that He uses faithful men and women as they stand together to fulfill His will. In keeping with this perspective, the Board has extended membership to men who agree with this position and are members of fundamental, separatist, Baptist churches.

Music Philosophy

This statement is the institutional philosophy of FBBC&TS. It is not intended to be a model for any individual, church, or organization.

We believe that music is a gift from God to be used for His glory (Colossians 1:16). Music is important in our culture, in the church, and in the believer's life. It is a language with which we can communicate with God and with each other. Music influences us in many ways: physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually (1 Sam. 16:23).

As a language for the Christian, music should express that which is pure and wholesome. Since there are over 500 references to music in Scripture, we conclude that God considers music to be an important aspect of the Christian life about which we should make wise, discerning choices.

We believe that a godly Christian testimony necessitates a guard against music that might dishonor the name of God or lessen the Christian's influence in the world. We desire to honor God in our music philosophy and practice as we seek to prepare men and women to serve the Lord in local, fundamental Baptist churches.

Our policies stem from Biblical principles upon which the institution is founded. We are seeking to instill in the lives of our young people a passion for that which is excellent as commanded in the Scriptures (Philippians 1:9, 10). We believe that music expresses morality and is not amoral. The Bible is clear that we are to be different from the world, set apart unto the Lord, and living a Christ-like life (Romans 12:1, 2; Philippians 2:5; 1 John 2:15–17). We believe that a Christian's music should be an expression of this separation.

Great music through the years has been based upon an appropriate, skillful organization of melody, harmony, and rhythm. This organization is not merely the product of a particular cultural preference but is rooted in the natural order of created things, reflecting the image of God in man (Genesis 1:27; 1 Corinthians 14:33, 40). We believe good music is based primarily upon appealing melody, is enhanced by harmony, and is supported by appropriate rhythm. There is a wide variety of acceptable styles available to the believer in both sacred and secular realms. Our music emphasis is directed to help students acquire a taste for God-honoring music about which there is no question. In this way, we hope to encourage students to grow and expand their knowledge and understanding of music and to honor God in the use of music both in practice and performance.

We further believe that music is a vital part of the life of our student body, and it is our desire to help them in this area to be fully equipped for the ministry. Most importantly, we want to help our students conform to the image of Christ and to be an accurate reflection of Him. This is a primary goal of all our Christian education programs.

To achieve the above, we believe basic guidelines are needed for making decisions about the choice of music which students listen to or perform. The following are in keeping with that principle:

1. In the area of vocal music, special attention should be given to insure that the text is appropriate to a godly testimony. This includes both content and literary style (Colossians 3:16; Ephesians 4:29, 5:4).
2. Performance techniques should reinforce the message of the song and should avoid sensuality or the glorification of the performer (1 Corinthians 1:31).
3. While enrolled at Faith, students should refrain from listening to or performing rock, rap, country and western, new age, and jazz, as well as any "Christian" music that borrows these styles (1 John 2:15).
4. Songs or styles, which are strongly identified with unbiblical movements or worldly practices, should be avoided (Romans 12:1, 2). We do not wish to lead students toward music which is questionable or which might violate believers' consciences. However, we do wish to "follow after the things which make for peace and things where with one may edify another" (Romans 14:15–19).

FBBC&TS CORE VALUES

The mission of Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary, as a fundamental Baptist institution of Christian higher education, is to prepare vocational Christian workers and ministry leaders for local churches throughout the world.

Our institutional mission statement is supported by our defining documents. We expect complete allegiance to our doctrinal statement and by-laws and support and adherence to the core values, historic position statement, and our music philosophy statement on the part of board members, administrators, faculty, and staff.

FBBC&TS Values Bible-Centered Training

- As a Bible college, we purpose that our students evidence a comprehensive working knowledge of the Bible and of the great systematic truths of Scripture. This is accomplished by requiring that all of our four-year graduates complete a Bible major and by holding daily chapels and annual conferences to enhance the biblical education of our students. We firmly believe that this Bible major is at the heart of the college curriculum.

- As a seminary, we strive to develop proficiency in interpreting and communication the Bible, discernment based on the absoluteness of God's truth, and a commitment to biblical doctrine and philosophy of ministry. We accomplish these goals through the study of the original biblical languages, hermeneutics, expositional preaching, and biblical, historical, systematic, and practical theology.

FBBC&TS Values Academics

- As a Christian institution, we maintain the historic doctrine and standards of conservative Christianity and uphold the accuracy and authority of the Bible. Thus, in our curriculum, we seek to teach the Scriptures so that we might instill a thoroughly biblical worldview in every academic pursuit. We celebrate the gospel of Christ as the central message of the Bible and desire to share this good news with the lost.
- We have built a faculty that is composed of highly qualified professors who are developing and assessing academic programs and policies. We champion academic freedom on the part of our professors so that they might teach, research, and publish within the parameters of the institution's doctrinal, professional, and positional standards.
- We teach a comprehension of Western civilization and the application of information literacy, communication, and critical thinking skills that characterize broadly educated people. We prioritize the campus community, face-to-face instruction, and discipleship.
- We seek compliance with accepted standards of institutional integrity and value assessments by accrediting agencies.

FBBC&TS Values Our Fundamental Baptist Heritage

- We believe in the historic distinctives of Baptists.
- We maintain the historic fundamentals of the faith: the inspiration of Scripture and its inerrancy, the virgin birth, the deity of Christ, His substitutionary death, His physical resurrection, and His literal return to the earth. We unashamedly and earnestly contend for these truths and purposefully limit institutional cooperation on the basis of these principles, refusing to cooperate in ecumenical ministry endeavors with apostates and with believers who work with apostates.
- In our institutional distinctives we hold to traditional dispensationalism, a non-charismatic position, a historical-grammatical hermeneutic, and a literal, six-day creation.
- In light of God's holiness, we value and teach conservative expressions of worship and music, seeking to develop biblical convictions in our students. We reject pragmatism as a philosophical basis for ministry.
- We promote high standards of ethics and righteous living and strive to avoid behavior that compromises one's testimony or brings reproach upon the name of Christ. With an attitude of humility and grace, we desire for everyone in the Faith family to glorify God in character, speech, action and association.

FBBC&TS Values Discipleship

- Faith exists as an institution for intensive discipleship. We provide a campus environment conducive to Christian growth by nurturing maturity, biblical discernment, personal responsibility, self-discipline, and good decision-making skills.
- We purpose to model authentic Christian lives and service before our students. We communicate class content that imparts knowledge and touches the affections of the students, leading them to follow Christ. We cultivate a passion for discipleship by promoting interaction with students in and out of the classroom. We implement a discipleship model through the use of our handbooks to promote Christian conduct and growth in biblical virtues.

- We believe that strong academics provide the foundation for intensive discipleship. Therefore, as a Bible college and seminary, we seek to develop quality programs so that we might excel at training Christian workers and leaders.
- We value the opportunities for discipleship that face-to-face contact with students affords, and so prioritize campus classes over online offerings. Our online courses emphasize personal interaction with the instructor.

FBBC&TS Values Preparing Christian Leaders

- Faith exists primarily to train individuals for vocational Christian service. We also exist to prepare every student for life and ministry according to God's calling. We emphasize the Bible and ministry in every degree program. We press the claims of Christ upon our students and want them to consider the sacred trust and high honor of vocational Christian service for their lives.
- We design our new programs in light of their contribution to and compatibility with our mission as a Bible college and seminary.

FBBC&TS Values the Church

- We believe that the local church is the center of God's program for this age. We exist to train and educate workers and leaders to serve in and through local churches. In light of the Great Commission and the Great Commandments, we emphasize Bible, theology, prayer, evangelism, and ministry through the local church. Furthermore, we require our students to participate in Christian service in local churches.
- Faith's motto is "With the Word to the World." To this end, we train our students to evangelize locally and globally. We provide opportunities for students to participate in short-term missions and cross-cultural ministries. We encourage students to consider the possibility of life-long Christian ministry worldwide.

LOCATION AND FACILITIES

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary is located in the heart of Iowa, ten miles north of Des Moines, Iowa's capital. With a population of more than 300,000, the greater Des Moines area provides abundant opportunities for employment, recreation, sightseeing, and shopping. The many independent, fundamental Baptist churches in the area provide a significant variety of ministry and Christian service opportunities.

The seminary enjoys a good relationship with the Ankeny community, its leaders, and businesses. With a population of more than 54,000, Ankeny is noted for its many community services and recreational facilities.

The 52-acre campus provides an attractive setting for the seminary. The colonial architecture, spacious lawns, wide walkways, athletic fields, and pond all contribute to the aesthetic beauty of the functional facilities God has provided.

Jordan Hall

Jordan Hall houses the president's office and the offices of Academic Services, Business and Finance, Admissions, Advancement, Communications, and Registrar.

John L. Patten Library

The library contains more than 70,000 carefully selected volumes. Also housed in the library is the David Nettleton Memorial Collection, containing the personal library of Dr. David Nettleton, who served as president of our college from 1965 to 1980. A tape library of his sermons and other memorabilia from his life and ministry are a legacy of his years of service.

Benson Hall

This building contains the seminary dean's office, the seminary commons room, several seminary classrooms, the homiletics lab, the seminary chapel, and the dining hall.

Nettleton Center

With seating capacity in excess of 1,500, this building provides space for college chapel and special events such as concerts, conferences, drama presentations, and commencement exercises. The gymnasium is equipped with regulation-size basketball and volleyball courts, bleachers, and lockers. This building also houses the student center and coffee shop, fitness center, Faith Bookstore, Student Life Department, and several classrooms.

Housing

FBTS provides housing for single students in two 100-student residence halls. Additional apartment housing is available for students.

Special Facilities and Services

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary desires to assist handicapped students who may need special facilities and services. Specific information can be obtained by contacting the Student Life Office.

Computer Services

Public access computers are located in the Library and the computer lab. All students staying in the residence halls and apartments are provided with an Ethernet connection to connect a personal computer to the Faith network.

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary desires to help students manifest conduct that is appropriate for believers in Jesus Christ. For this reason, the institution reserves the right to prohibit the use and possession of certain electronic devices while a student is in residence at FBTS. The institution also reserves the right to limit and direct the use of other electronic devices. Details are available in the Student Handbook.

Campus Safety

FBTS is committed to providing a safe and secure campus for all members of the Faith community. In compliance with the federal Clery Act, the crime statistics for Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary are available on our web site at faith.edu/about-faith/campus-services or by written request to Campus Services at 1900 NW Fourth Street, Ankeny, Iowa 50023.

STANDARDS

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary seeks to maintain high academic and spiritual standards. In light of this goal, the Seminary expects its students to submit cheerfully to its established standards of conduct.

Each student who is taking at least two regular courses (i.e., not modular or online courses) is expected to attend seminary chapel each day (10:00 a.m.–10:40 a.m.) that he or she has a class. These students are also required to attend the annual Missions Conference, Refresh Conference, assessment day, seminary baccalaureate, and commencement. Students are strongly encouraged to attend the seminary fellowship activities and the special events in the college such as concerts and festivals.

We view the use of alcoholic beverages, tobacco, or nonprescription drugs as incompatible with the Christian experience. The seminary expects its students to abstain from theater attendance, rock music (secular or religious), dancing, pornography, immorality, homosexuality, and gambling. Students should observe Biblical principles of conduct at all times.

Each student should also give careful consideration to personal grooming and dress that reflects appropriateness and professionalism. Business casual is acceptable for all courses and modules. Formal dress is expected on some occasions. Consult the seminary student handbook for details.

Attendance at Faith Baptist Theological Seminary is a privilege and not a right. All students are expected to conform to the standards and regulations established by the Administration. Furthermore, the seminary may request the withdrawal of any student who does not manifest the spirit of the institution, whether or not the student has transgressed specific regulations. Students are annually required to read through the printed seminary standards and sign a statement of assent.

GENERAL ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary admits qualified students regardless of sex, race, color, national or ethnic origin, or physical handicap, who are personally committed to faith in Jesus Christ. The applicant must have proven Christian character and must be in agreement with the doctrinal statement of Faith Baptist Theological Seminary.

A bachelor's degree from an approved college with evidence of potential for work on the graduate level is required. At the discretion of the faculty, the applicant may be required to complete deficiencies in his/her undergraduate program. All first year M.Div. students are required to take the matriculation exam near the beginning of their studies at FBTS.

Applicants with a bachelors degree or equivalent from an institution not accredited by a U.S. Department of Education recognized accrediting agency or with an undergraduate GPA below the normal admissions requirements may be required to enter under a probationary period of one semester with a minimum full-time (9 credits) academic load and maintain a minimum GPA of 2.5 during that semester. Additionally, these applicants must submit a recent research paper or essay demonstrating writing and research skills.

An essential part of one's undergraduate program should be courses in general education. These courses normally include classes in English grammar and composition, speech, sociology, history, science, literature, mathematics, psychology, fine arts, and philosophy. Such courses in general education are intended to impart common knowledge, intellectual concepts, and attitudes that are possessed by all educated people.

The completion of all application forms and the submission of the required application credentials are necessary. Because the institutional mission involves preparing persons for leadership ministry positions, applications from those that have been divorced or are married to someone who has been divorced will not be processed.

International students: Faith is authorized under Federal law to admit nonimmigrant alien students. Contact the Admissions Office for details of the admissions procedure. The seminary offers financial assistance to international students based on availability of funds.

See individual programs for specific admission requirements (pp. 41–55).

The seminary does not allow student status for anyone who must comply with court-ordered probation for felony conviction or must register as a sex offender. Applicants are required to disclose any moral or legal factor that could impede their effectiveness and faithfulness in ministry. Applicants who have fulfilled previous legal sanctions for criminal charges or immoral conduct must have already completed two years of supervision on site with a local church. Applicants and students alike are not eligible for active status while listed in state registries for sexual offenders or while serving court-ordered sanctions, such as incarceration or probation.

College students who are juniors or above may be accepted provisionally into a seminary degree program until they have completed a bachelor's degree. These students may only take up to twelve graduate credits until they have been fully accepted into the degree program.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS

Nine credit hours per semester is considered full-time. (For financial aid purposes, a full-time course load includes all credits taken from January–June or July–December.)

Definition of a Credit Hour

The basic one credit semester hour consists of the equivalent of 13 contact hours (55 minutes of instructional time). These sessions may consist of recitation, lecture, discussion, seminar, laboratory, or other elements. In addition, the expectation is that a minimum of 30 hours (60 minutes per hour) of student work outside of the class time are required for each unit of credit awarded.

In establishing a minimum standard for student work outside of the class time, it is expected that upper level or specialized undergraduate courses will in many cases exceed the minimum standard. Seminary classes will in most cases far surpass the minimum standard. Each course's student learning objectives, as outlined in the syllabus, provide fundamental direction for the course content and student assignments.

Semester-Long Courses

A semester credit hour is earned for each 55-minute session of classroom instruction during the thirteen weeks of the semester with the normal expectation of a minimum of two hours of outside study for each hour of class.

Typically, a three semester credit hour course meets for three 55-minute sessions per week for 13 weeks resulting in approximately 43 hours of face-to-face class time (39 sessions), and a minimum of 92 hours of work outside the classroom. These 135 hours include a regular class schedule during finals week.

Course Expectations

- Students are expected to demonstrate respect for instructors and fellow students at all times.
- Students should be attentive. Talking, reading or studying other materials, texting, and sleeping in class are inappropriate.
- Laptops and other electronic devices may be brought to classes to be used only for functions pertinent to that particular class as qualified by the instructor.
- Cell phones should be turned off or set to silent mode.

Module Courses

The yearly seminary calendar includes several module courses. Module courses typically run for thirteen-week sessions comprised of one week of concentrated, face-to-face class time and a blend of pre-class and post-class work. One semester hour of credit will be awarded for the equivalent of a minimum of 45 hours of student academic activity that includes direct faculty instruction and student work outside the classroom. Because of the nature of modules, missing classes will jeopardize receiving credit for the course.

Online Courses

The yearly seminary calendar includes six online terms, each typically running for seven or eight weeks. One semester hour of credit will be awarded for the equivalent of a minimum of 45 hours of student academic activity that includes direct faculty instruction and student work.

Online courses include a high degree of written communication in areas such as discussions and reviewing each other's work. It is crucial that students and professors in the online learning environment maintain Christian character and academic professionalism in all communication. To that end, Faith has developed the following Netiquette Statement. By taking courses online at Faith, you agree to the standards as stated below.

Netiquette Statement

- Professional Communication—Students should refrain from deception, anger, and slothful submissions in their online coursework including abbreviating (e.g., b/c for "because"), using texting lingo (like BTW or IMHO), employing sentence fragments, leaving out punctuation, dropping capitalizations, and introducing irrelevant topics into group discussions or other collaborative activities.
- Respectful Communication—Students should not employ any kind of foul language including profanity, minced oaths, abbreviated oaths (e.g., OMG), symbolic references to swearing (e.g., #&$*#@ !%), and any other inappropriate, unwholesome, crude, or disrespectful expression or sexual innuendo.
- Appropriate Communication—Students should refrain from online shouting (conveyed by ALL CAPITALIZATION), libel, slander, and malice (e.g., threats, harassment, or offensive messages or comments).
- Constructive Communication—Students should communicate truth and differing opinions to one another sensibly and thoughtfully, without being inflammatory or insulting. For example, if a student posts critiques of another student's work on a discussion thread, the comments should be constructive, insightful, and encouraging. Students should build up one another, speaking the truth in love and showing grace to others.
- Christ-like Communication—All online interactions should manifest the life of Christ so that students will be kind to one another, being compassionate and forgiving without being overly sensitive.

Academic Integrity/Cheating

Students must demonstrate academic integrity in all facets of the learning process. All work must be the student's own. Dishonest quiz or examination behavior (such as using notes, books, or other materials, when not allowed), sharing or copying work, untrue reading or listening reports, plagiarism, and other forms of cheating will result in an automatic "0." In flagrant or repeated cases, more severe penalties will result, in keeping with Faith's Student Handbook and Catalog.

Plagiarism

Papers and other creative projects will often require the use and/or integration of other authors' works or ideas. Students must properly cite the source of the material whenever they quote directly or indirectly, paraphrase, or in any way use information that is not original to them. Should questions arise, please consult the instructor or a librarian, or visit plagiarism.org. Cheating and plagiarism are subject to disciplinary procedures. See the Seminary Student Handbook for details.

Accommodations Statement

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, students with documented disabilities can pursue accommodations as needed by contacting the institutional nurse. In order that learning needs may be appropriately met, students need to provide the instructor with an accommodations form from the nurse. To assure that accommodations will be available throughout the course, students are encouraged to make requests as soon as possible.

Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence Policy

Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary (FBBC&TS) is committed to safeguarding its ideals of scholarship, as well as its spiritual and moral atmosphere in an environment free from any form of sex discrimination. Sexual assault (including rape), sexual abuse, sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, gender-based harassment (collectively "sexual misconduct") and domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking (collectively "relationship violence") are prohibited, and discipline up to and including dismissal (for students) and termination of employment (for employees) can be expected in response to any of these violations, which also may give rise to external legal and criminal action in certain situations.

No person may engage in sexual or gender-based harassment that creates a hostile environment in or under any program or activity of FBBC&TS. No person who is an employee or agent of FBBC&TS (including a student employee) may condition a decision or benefit on a student's submission to sexual or gender-based harassment (regardless of whether the student resists and suffers the threatened harm or submits and avoids the threatened harm). It is the policy of the institution to take all allegations of sexual misconduct and relationship violence seriously, to provide a prompt, just and impartial review of such matters when they are reported and, when a complaint is determined to be founded by a preponderance of the evidence, to take appropriate disciplinary and remedial action. Furthermore the institution will require annual training on this policy for students and for employees.

This policy applies to all students and employees of FBBC&TS, without exception. The scope of this policy includes all educational buildings and grounds (campus), as well as on-campus dormitories whether or not an incident involves students, employees, members of a third party, and campus visitors. This policy applies to all FBBC&TS students and employees at all academic-related events, activities, and functions whether held on or off campus, including extra-curricular events such as FBBC athletic competitions or FBBC musical concerts.

The Seminary believes that counseling, campus security, and campus-wide education about abuse prevention, protection, and the rights and duties of all students and employees are important and necessary components in the process of maintaining an assault- and abuse-free campus. The Seminary's complete Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence Policy, which explains each of these components in detail, is distributed to all staff and students during the respective orientations, is available on paper in the Student Life Department or the Title IX Coordinator's office, and is available online on faithinside under Student Resources.

GENERAL GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

- The candidate for graduation must give evidence of Christian character and effectiveness in ministry by involvement in ministries that demonstrate to the satisfaction of the faculty potential for future lay or vocational ministry.
- The candidate must also accept the doctrinal statement and the historic position of Faith Baptist Theological Seminary, holding to separatist and Baptist convictions as understood by the seminary.
- All financial obligations must be met prior to conferral of the degree.
- The candidate must be approved for graduation by the faculty and Board of Directors.
- The candidate must have successfully completed all requirements necessary for one's degree program, maintaining the required grade point average for graduation.
- While a resident student, the candidate must have a satisfactory record of chapel attendance and Christian service.

Students are often able to qualify for financial assistance to reduce their seminary expenses. Additional information is given in the "Student Aid and Scholarship Programs" section of this catalog or may be obtained from the Financial Aid Office. See Payment Plans on page 84 for further information.

Explanation of Fees

A tuition fee is established on two levels to meet the requirements of different classifications of students. The full-time student may take 14–18 hours without incurring additional charges over the base of 14 hours. The student taking more than 18 hours receives a reduced rate per credit hour. The student taking fewer than 14 hours is charged at a slightly higher rate. Conference audits will be billed at a reduced credit hour rate. This fee covers some of the expenses incurred during the educational process. Gifts from churches and individuals enable Faith to hold the tuition fee at a minimum. During the nine-day drop/add period, 100% of the tuition fee is refundable. There will be no refund for classes dropped after the drop/add period. For information on refund policies for complete withdrawal, see the “Refunds and Repayments Policy” on page 94.

The technology fee is charged for every credit hour in a term (Fall, Spring, Summer I, Summer II). It is nonrefundable.

The student benefit fee is charged to all students. Payment of this fee covers health services, seminary fellowships, yearbook, and admission to most athletic events. It is nonrefundable.

Music fees provide individual instruction from the Music Department faculty. They are refundable on the same basis as the tuition fees.

An application fee is required of all applicants. This fee covers the cost of screening the applicant and generating the required records. It is nonrefundable.

A reapplication fee is required of all students enrolling after not attending for one or more semesters. It covers the administrative costs of reinstatement. It is nonrefundable.

A matriculation fee is charged only to new students. This fee establishes the reporting, recording, and maintenance of the students' grades. It is nonrefundable.

A late registration fee is assessed if the student does not register for regular classes during the scheduled time unless specific permission has been given. It is nonrefundable.

A dorm damage deposit is charged the first semester of residency to the student living in the dorm. The deposit will be refunded, less any deductions for damaged property, after the student graduates or has permanently withdrawn from school.

The room fee covers the cost of a room for a full semester. Occupancy begins without additional charges on the first day of orientation and ends the Saturday of final exam week. It is nonrefundable.

The board fee pays for up to 19 meals per week. All dormitory students are required to pay a board fee. Meals begin with the noon meal on the first day of orientation and end with the noon meal on the Friday of final exam week. Meals are not served on Sunday evening and during the Thanksgiving, Christmas, or Spring breaks. Special meal plans are not available. Refunds will not be given for meals missed. The board fee is refundable at 80% of the weekly prorated amount to the student who follows proper withdrawal procedures.

Off-campus housing rent is paid to the Accounting Office. All utilities are furnished except electricity. Apartment-sized appliances are furnished. Limited storage may be available. Information regarding availability of housing may be obtained from the Housing Office.

A vehicle registration fee is required for those students on or off campus who have vehicles. It is nonrefundable.

An athletic participation fee is charged to all students who participate in a Faith athletic program. The fee helps to pay for the extra expenses involved in providing athletic competition. It is not refundable.

Insurance coverage is required for each full-time student either through the insurance provided by the student's employment or through the student insurance offered by the seminary. Seminary insurance coverage is for a twelve-month period beginning at registration.

A graduation fee is assessed during a student's final semester before graduation. The fee covers commencement activities and provides the cap and gown. It is nonrefundable after April 1.

All other fees are nonrefundable. Transcripts are free but will not be issued unless the student's account is paid in full.

Other Expenses

Other costs may be incurred which should be included in a student's planning for seminary expenses. Such expenses include books and supplies, personal expenses (such as clothing, laundry, recreation, or personal items), incidental medical expenses, and transportation costs.

Change in Registration

The Drop/Add Period varies depending upon the format of the class.

Traditional Classes—semester-long classes. The Drop/Add Period consists of the first two weeks of the semester.

Module Classes—the Drop-Add Period consists of the first day of classes.

Online Classes—the Drop/Add Period consists of the first week of the class.

After this period, students may not change the status of a class from audit to credit or credit to audit. To make schedule changes during the Drop/Add Period or any other time throughout the first 14 weeks of the semester, contact the Registrar's office. Drops are not allowed during the last two weeks of the semester.

Withdrawal

Students may voluntarily withdraw from school for any reason. An involuntary withdrawal is an action initiated by the seminary resulting in the termination of a student's enrollment in school. In this situation, the student's withdrawal begins on the date of the action or the date set when the case has been adjudicated. The withdrawal process is initiated in the Student Life Department. Refunds are given as soon as possible after the withdrawal process is completed (usually within one week). Dorm damage deposits are sent by March for those who withdraw during the fall semester and by July for those who withdraw during the spring semester. Any appeal of these policies should be directed to the Vice President for Business and Campus Operations.

Payment Plans

All charges are due and payable at registration. Payment due will be the semester charges minus financial aid through scholarships, grants, or loans. This arrangement is the least expensive and most cost-effective plan for the student. However, because some students are not able to pay all charges at once, monthly payments for the remaining balance after financial aid has been subtracted will be made through an electronic system. An annual participation fee of $25 is charged. There is no additional service or interest charge. The prior semester's account must be paid in full before the next semester. The vice president for business must approve exceptions before another semester's registration.

Part-time Students

Students taking fewer than six credit hours should pay all charges for the semester at registration. Any exceptions must be approved by the Vice President for Business and Finance.

Module Students

Individuals who are taking one-week modules (including the summer and winter terms) are to pay charges for the class on the Monday of the module week.

Online Students

Individuals taking online courses have to pay the tuition and fees before being allowed to take a course.

Delinquent Accounts

Unsettled accounts will result in the withholding of degrees, diplomas, and official transcripts until payment has been made in full. Unpaid accounts will be subject to the collection procedures of the college.

Stewardship

The cost of the quality education offered by Faith Baptist Theological Seminary is not completely supported by tuition or other charges paid by the students. Additional funds from outside sources are necessary. Friends may assist Faith financially through:

- Gifts of money
- Matching gift from employer
- Church support
- Bequest through a will
- Deposit agreement
- Gift of securities
- Gift of equipment or saleable property
- Life insurance gifts
- Life income estate
- Annuities
- Trusts

Life income estate allows a donor to deed property to the seminary and retain complete use of it while the donor or donors are living. At the death of the surviving beneficiary, the property passes directly to the seminary.

Annuities and trusts provide a guaranteed income for life to the donor or donors; the remainder is given to the seminary at the death of the surviving beneficiary.

Free estate planning assistance is available upon request. Additional information may be obtained by writing or calling the vice president for advancement.

STUDENT FINANCIAL AID AND SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS

General Information

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary offers a broad program of financial aid to students who are accepted for admission and who demonstrate a need for such help. Most financial aid is based on need as determined by the completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This application is available at fafsa.ed.gov. Our Title IV code as requested on the FAFSA is 007121. The application can be submitted to the processor after January 1 of the academic school year for which aid is requested. Faith Baptist Theological Seminary must have the correct, complete application information by the last day of the student's enrollment in an academic year.

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary accepts the premise that the primary responsibility for financing a seminary education rests with students and their families. Financial aid in the form of grants, scholarships, and loans is considered supplementary to what students and their families can provide. Students requiring assistance are expected to carry some of the financial responsibility in the form of personal savings, summer earnings, part-time employment, or a combination of these self-helps. Financial aid may be applied for annually. An award letter is sent to prospective students who have been accepted for admission to Faith Baptist Theological Seminary and who qualify for financial aid. The type and amount of aid are stated in that document.

In order to qualify for federal financial aid, a student is required to

1. be a U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen;
2. be enrolled as a regular student working toward a degree in an eligible program;
3. maintain satisfactory academic progress (GPA requirements range from 2.0 to 3.3 for most scholarships); and
4. have financial need.

Consult the Financial Aid Office for information about specific scholarships.

If a student receives state or federal aid, the total of all aid (including institutional and outside scholarships) may not exceed the student's unmet need. Unmet need is determined by Cost of Attendance less the Expected Family Contribution (EFC), a number determined by the FAFSA. If a student receives only institutional aid, the student may not receive more than the cost of attendance. Institutional aid is available only to full-time students.

Student Rights

1. You have the right to know what financial aid programs are available at the school.
2. You have the right to know the deadlines for submitting applications for each of the financial aid programs available.
3. You have the right to know how financial aid will be distributed, how decisions on the distribution are made, and the basis for these decisions.
4. You have the right to know how your financial need was determined. This includes how costs for tuition and fees, room and board, travel, books and supplies, personal and miscellaneous expenses are considered in your budget.
5. You have the right to know what resources (such as parental contribution, other financial aid, or your assets) were considered in the calculation of your need.
6. You have the right to know how much of your financial need, as determined by the institution, has been met.
7. You have the right to request an explanation of the various programs in your student aid package.
8. You have the right to know the school's refund policy.

Student Responsibilities

1. You must complete all application forms accurately and submit them on time to the proper place.
2. You must provide correct information.
3. You must return all additional documentation, verification, corrections, and/or new information requested by either the Financial Aid Office or the agency to which you submitted your application.
4. You are responsible for reading and understanding all forms that you are asked to sign and for keeping copies of them.
5. You must accept responsibility for all agreements that you sign.

Elmer O. and Ida Preston Educational Trust Fund

Recipient must be a full-time student who has been an Iowa resident for at least six months and is preparing for a Christian ministry. Awards are usually a combination of grants and loans. The Preston Educational Trust Fund may be contacted at 515-243-4191. The application deadline is June 30.

Federal Stafford Loan

The Federal Stafford Loan is a federally-insured loan program. Students may apply for an unsubsidized loan. The student is responsible for the interest on this loan while attending school and during the grace period. Payment on the principal can be deferred .

REFUNDS AND REPAYMENTS POLICY

The Reauthorization of the Higher Education Act that was signed into law in October 1998 revised the formulas used in determining the amount of federal aid that is required to be returned to the respective program(s) when a student withdraws from the seminary. In response to the new requirements, the following is a summary of the Refund and Repayment Policy.

The school expects that students who enroll at FBTS will be able to complete each semester. However, circumstances may arise that could make it necessary to withdraw before the end of the enrollment period. The information below contains the refund policies that will take effect should withdrawal be necessary. Examples of the application of refund policies are available upon request in the Financial Aid Office.

Tuition Refunds

Dropping Classes: According to the drop/add policy, a student may drop and/or add classes during the first nine class days of each semester. The Accounting Office will establish a student's charges on the first Monday following registration week. A full refund is given for any subject dropped (including applied music courses) within the first nine class days, except when the student's total semester credit hours remain within the 14–18 hour range. This includes individual piano, organ, and voice lessons.

The Financial Aid Office will establish a student's financial aid based on the student's enrollment after the ninth class day of the semester. After nine class days, there will be no adjustment in tuition charges and no adjustment in financial aid for dropping classes, unless the student completely withdraws from school.

Complete Withdrawal: A student interested in withdrawing from FBTS should contact the Student Life Department to begin the withdrawal process. A student who withdraws on or before the 60% point in the semester will receive a refund in tuition. The amount of the refund is based on the percentage of the semester that has not been completed. The portion of the semester not completed is based on calendar days from the first day of classes through the last scheduled day of finals, including weekends, conferences, and any semester breaks. Financial aid will be refunded to the respective sources (federal, state, and institutional) using the same percentage. For example, a student who withdraws after completing 20% of the semester will be charged 20% of tuition and retain 20% of the financial aid.

There is no refund for withdrawal after 60% of the semester has been completed except for board charges.

Students who have received a cash disbursement from the financial aid because of a credit balance on the student's account at FBTS or for living expenses may be required to repay a portion of the financial aid released to the student.

Military Withdrawal: No less than the following options will be afforded the enrolled student who is a member, or the enrolled spouse of a member (if the member has a dependent child); the military student must be a member of the Iowa Army or Air National Guard or reserve forces of the United States, who has been ordered to national guard duty or federal active duty. (Student agrees to provide the college with a copy of official mobilization orders immediately upon publication.) The three minimum options are:

1. Students may choose to withdraw from the entire registration term and thereby receive a full refund of tuition and mandatory fees.

2. Students may choose to make arrangements with their instructors for all course grades or for incompletes that shall be completed by the student at a later date. If such arrangements are made and agreed to, the student's registration for that term shall remain intact and tuition and mandatory fees shall be assessed in full for those registered courses.

3. Students may choose to make arrangements with only some of their instructors for grades or for incompletes that shall be completed by the student at a later date. If such arrangements are made, the registration for those courses shall remain intact and tuition and mandatory fees shall be assessed for those courses.

Any course(s) for which arrangements cannot be made for grades or incompletes shall be considered dropped, and the tuition and mandatory fees refunded for each course(s).

Dismissal: If a student is dismissed from FBTS, no tuition, room, board, or fees will be refunded. If the student received federal Title IV financial aid and is dismissed prior to completing 60% of the semester, the federal aid programs will be refunded in accordance with federal policies.

This policy is subject to federal regulations. Contact the Financial Aid Office for details and to learn of any changes to this policy.

Order of Refund Distribution

1. Unsubsidized Federal Direct Stafford Loan
2. Federal Direct Grad Plus Loan
3. Other federal, state, institutional, or private sources of aid
4. Student

The refund amount will be subtracted from the total school charges to determine the initial amount the school will retain. The student's unpaid charges will then be deducted and the balance collected from the student.

Room charges are nonrefundable after registration day, except in the case of withdrawal due to illness or other reasons beyond the control of the student, not including involuntary withdrawal. Board charges will be refunded at 80% of the weekly prorated amount.

A complete Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy and Refunds and Repayments Policy are available on our website at faith.edu/admissions/financial-aid and click on Financial Aid Handbook.

Students Receiving Institutional Scholarships

The unused portion of any institutional scholarship may be retained by FBTS. Repayment will be calculated in the following manner:

1. Overpayment equals net cash disbursement (excluding loans) minus noninstitutional costs incurred.
2. Loans are excluded from the overpayment calculation because the student is already obligated to repay the loan(s).

Veterans' Benefits

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary is approved by the Office of Veterans' Education for training under the veterans' programs. Qualifying students should apply through the Registrar's Office.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

The Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, requires that each student maintain satisfactory progress toward a degree in order to receive financial aid. At Faith, these standards are established for students who are receiving or applying for financial aid from one or more of the various federal, state, or school grant, scholarship, and loan programs.

The FBBC&TS Satisfactory Academic Progress Standards for Financial Aid apply to all students who want to establish or maintain financial aid eligibility. These standards apply to a student's entire degree program including terms for which financial aid was not applied for or disbursed.

These standards require students to complete a specific number of credit hours each academic year and maintain the minimum GPA as defined by the standards. These are the minimum standards that must be completed. Specific aid programs and college/school or department standards may require more than these minimum standards.

The academic progress of financial aid recipients is monitored a minimum of once each academic year. Individuals should refer to the Financial Aid Handbook for more specific information regarding these standards.

Student Privacy Rights

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary abides by the Family Educational Rights Privacy Act of 1974 (20 U.S.C. 123g), which designates certain actions and policies designed to protect the privacy of students and their parents. The Act specifically governs access to student records maintained by the seminary and the release of such information. The Act requires the seminary to provide students access to official records directly related to themselves and to provide an opportunity for a hearing to challenge the accuracy of such records, although this right does not include the right to challenge the appropriateness of a grade as determined by an instructor.

The Act generally requires that the student grant written consent for the release of personally identifiable data about the student from seminary-maintained records to other than a specified list of exceptions. The seminary may release public directory information concerning students. Such information may include the student's name, address, telephone listing, date and place of birth, major field of study, grade level, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, digitized image/photo, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student. The above designated information is subject to release by the seminary at any time unless the seminary has received a prior written objection from the student, specifying information which the student requests not be released.

As of January 3, 2012, the U.S. Department of Education's FERPA regulations expand the circumstances under which your education records and personally identifiable information (PII) may be accessed without your consent. This change mainly involves Federal and State authorities and their approved agencies. Contact the Registrar's Office for a complete explanation of this change.

Students with Disabilities

Students with documented disabilities should comply with the normal application process. In addition to normal admission requirements, students should note any special concerns for their academic success and provide documentation for academic or physical accommodations. The school nurse and a faculty member assist the Admissions Office in this process.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Faith Baptist Theological Seminary offers four Masters of Arts programs and the Master of Divinity program to meet the different ministry preparation needs of students.

- Master of Arts in Religion (pp. 40–41)
- Master of Arts in Biblical Studies (pp. 42–43)
- Master of Arts in Practical Theology (pp. 44–46)
- Master of Arts in Theological Studies (pp. 47–49)
- Master of Divinity (pp. 50–54)

Class Formats

Courses are offered in three formats.

- Semester-long traditional classes—thirteen-week classes in fall and spring semesters
- One-week module classes—twelve module weeks available during the year
- Online classes—six terms during the year; courses run seven or eight weeks

Students can design their program of study in traditional semester classes or through a hybrid format of semester classes, one-week module classes, and online classes. Visit faith.edu for a complete listing of these courses.

Master of Arts Programs

Students may earn the M.A. degree with a combination of on-campus (traditional and/or modules courses) and online courses. Online courses can be no more than 49% of the total credit hours.

The following core courses are in every Master of Arts program:

B-RE 611	Old Testament Seminar	3 hrs.
B-RE 612	New Testament Seminar	3 hrs.
B-RE 641	Introduction to Biblical Exegesis*	3 hrs.
T-HI 631	History of Fundamentalism	2 hrs.
T-SY 601	Theological Research	1 hr.
T-HI 656	Contemporary Christianity	2 hrs.
T-SY 641	Theology Seminar	3 hrs.

*Students may substitute Hermeneutics if they have completed one year of Greek or Hebrew grammar in college or seminary.

Master of Divinity Program

The Master of Divinity program is the standard seminary program for preparing individuals to serve as pastors, missionaries, teachers, and other leaders in vocational church ministry. This program requires regular semester and module courses. Students may take online classes to fulfill their elective requirements.

MASTER OF ARTS IN RELIGION

Dr. Paul Hartog, Director

The Master of Arts in Religion degree is designed for the liberal arts college graduate who does not have a strong background in Bible and theology. This degree gives students a better understanding of the Scripture to aid them in their service for Christ as lay leaders in their churches.

Advantages

The Master of Arts in Religion (M.A.R.) degree allows students to personalize their own program by choosing several elective classes from ministry courses as well as Bible and theology courses.

Program Goals

Upon successful completion of the M.A.R. degree, students should be able to

- demonstrate a foundational knowledge of Biblical and theological studies at the graduate level;
- display an awareness of contemporary research on Biblical and theological studies;
- exercise specialized ministry skills for communicating and ministering the Word of God;
- manifest a greater commitment to the Lord;
- hold Biblical, theological, and practical convictions that reflect FBTS's values and position; and
- accomplish research at the graduate level.

Admission Requirements

An undergraduate Bachelor's degree is required for admission to the M.A.R. program. Students are permitted to transfer a maximum of 6 acceptable graduate credits into the M.A.R. program.

Graduation Requirements

A candidate in the M.A.R. program must have completed 32 hours of graduate study (including all requirements pertaining to the degree) with a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0. In addition to completing all classroom work and degree program requirements, the candidate must have evidenced solidarity of Christian character to the satisfaction of the faculty.

M.A.R. by Module and Online Courses

Students may complete the M.A.R. degree in residence, or they may complete the degree without relocating to the Ankeny area through a hybrid program of module and online courses. After completing 9 credits, students must apply to a degree program and be assigned a resident faculty advisor. Students who fail to apply to the degree program will not be allowed to put any additional credits toward the degree. Therefore, students should apply to the degree program when or before they reach the nine-credit limit. At least 26 credits must be taken through Faith Baptist Theological Seminary.

Curriculum

B-RE 611	Old Testament Seminar	3 hrs.
B-RE 612	New Testament Seminar	3 hrs.
B-RE 641	Introduction to Biblical Exegesis*	3 hrs.
T-HI 631	History of Fundamentalism	2 hrs.
T-HI 656	Contemporary Christianity	2 hrs.
T-SY 601	Theological Research	1 hr.
T-SY 641	Theology Seminar	3 hrs.
	Electives	15 hrs.
		32 hrs.

*Students may substitute Hermeneutics if they have completed one year of Greek or Hebrew grammar in college or seminary.

MASTER OF ARTS IN BIBLICAL STUDIES

Dr. Douglas Brown, Director

This major is designed for teachers, missionaries, and church workers holding Bible college degrees who sense the need for a year of spiritual and mental refreshment and a deeper study of the Scriptures.

Advantages

- It increases students' knowledge of the Bible.
- It enhances their ability to use the study tools so they can do exegesis in both Testaments.
- It raises their confidence in their ability to do research and to trust the validity of their findings.
- It increases their ability to teach at the upper levels.

Program Goals

Upon successful completion of the M.A. in Biblical Studies degree, students should be able to

- demonstrate an increased knowledge of the content of the Bible;
- demonstrate an increased knowledge of the historical and cultural backgrounds of the Bible;
- display a love for the Scriptures and a confidence that they are true;
- exposit both the Old Testament and New Testament using appropriate resources;
- conduct acceptable research in the field of Biblical studies at the master's level by accurately summarizing, appropriately organizing, and insightfully critiquing the conclusions of others; and
- teach the Bible effectively to people.

Admission Requirements

A minimum of 30 semester hours of Bible and theology at the undergraduate level, or their equivalent, is required before admission will be granted to the M.A. in Biblical Studies program. A grade point average of 3.0 or higher is expected in one's undergraduate work. Students are permitted to transfer a maximum of 12 acceptable graduate credits into this program.

Graduation Requirements

A candidate in the M.A. in Biblical Studies program must have completed all courses with a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 and must have completed all requirements pertaining to the degree program. This program requires 36 hours of graduate study, at least 18 of which must be in Biblical Studies. In addition to completing all classroom work and degree program requirements, the candidate must have evidenced ability in ministry, solidarity of Christian character, and definiteness of purpose to the satisfaction of the faculty.

M.A. by Module and Online Courses

Students may complete the M.A. degree in residence, or they may complete the degree without relocating to the Ankeny area through a hybrid program of module and online courses. After completing 9 credits, students must apply to a degree program and be assigned a resident faculty advisor. Students who fail to apply to the degree program will not be allowed to put any additional credits toward the degree. Therefore, students should apply to the degree program when or before they reach the nine-credit limit. At least 24 credits must be taken through Faith Baptist Theological Seminary.

Curriculum

B-RE 602	Hermeneutics	2 hrs.
B-RE 611	Old Testament Seminar	3 hrs.
B-RE 612	New Testament Seminar	3 hrs.
B-RE 641	Introduction to Biblical Exegesis*	3 hrs.
T-HI 631	History of Fundamentalism	2 hrs.
T-HI 656	Contemporary Christianity	2 hrs.
T-SY 601	Theological Research	1 hr.
T-SY 641	Theology Seminar	3 hrs.
	Electives (7 in Biblical Studies)	17 hrs.

36 hrs.

Required courses include 11 hours in Biblical Studies. Therefore, 7 hours must be chosen from other courses in the Biblical Studies Department to bring the major field credits to 18.

*This course is not required for those with at least one year of Greek or Hebrew grammar in college or seminary. In such cases, an additional Biblical Studies elective is substituted.

Not required if taking T-SY 811, 812, 821, and 822.

MASTER OF ARTS IN PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

Dr. Daniel Brown, Director

This major offers advanced work for graduates of accredited Bible colleges. The purpose of the program is to build upon the education of those who have already taken a college major in Pastoral Studies, Biblical Counseling, Missions, and related Biblical subjects. This program stresses the importance of the application of material gained on the undergraduate level.

Advantages

- It relates theology to practical theology in an integrative program primarily within the context of the local church.
- It helps the student develop professional skills for ministry and relate the Christian faith to the problems of society.
- It develops within students a higher level of competency in the ministry than that which is normally attained on the undergraduate level.
- It strengthens the personal disciplines needed in discharging ministerial responsibilities.
- It develops the abilities of the student to communicate the message of God by word and by life.

Program Goals

Upon successful completion of the M.A. in Practical Theology degree, students should be able to

- minister with a servant's heart;
- understand both academically and experientially the scope of practical ministry;
- grasp the information and tools necessary to have an effective Biblical Counseling ministry;
- demonstrate an understanding of the administrative skills needed for office effectiveness and corporate ministry organization;
- develop expository skills that incorporate various facets of their seminary training; and
- communicate the message of the Bible in a variety of ministry situations with skill and effectiveness.

Admission Requirements

A minimum of 30 semester hours of Bible and theology at the undergraduate level, or their equivalent, is required before admission will be granted to the M.A. in Practical Theology program. A grade point average of 3.0 or higher is expected in one's undergraduate work. Students are permitted to transfer a maximum of 12 acceptable graduate credits into this program.

Students pursuing pastoral ministry should have had at least 2 semesters of homiletics and an apprenticeship as a part of their undergraduate experience. This requirement may be waived, at the discretion of the seminary faculty, for those who have at least one year of full-time pastoral experience.

Graduation Requirements

A candidate in the M.A. in Practical Theology program must have completed all courses with a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 and must have completed all requirements pertaining to the degree program. This program requires 36 hours of graduate study, at least 18 of which must be in the major field. In addition to completing all classroom work and degree program requirements, the candidate must have evidenced ability in ministry, solidarity of Christian character, and definiteness of purpose to the satisfaction of the faculty.

M.A. by Module and Online Courses

Students may complete the M.A. degree in residence, or they may complete the degree without relocating to the Ankeny area through a hybrid program of module and online courses. After completing 9 credits, students must apply to a degree program and be assigned a resident faculty advisor. Students who fail to apply to the degree program will not be allowed to put any additional credits toward the degree. Therefore, students should apply to the degree program when or before they reach the nine-credit limit. At least 24 credits must be taken through Faith Baptist Theological Seminary.

T-SY 601	Theological Research	1 hr.
T-SY 641	Theology Seminar	3 hrs.
	Electives (14 in Practical Theology)	15 hrs.

36 hrs.

Required courses include 4 hours of Practical Theology. Therefore, at least 14 hours must be chosen from other courses in the Practical Theology Department to bring the major field credits to 18.

*Students may substitute Hermeneutics if they have completed one year of Greek or Hebrew grammar in college or seminary.

Not required if taking T-SY 811, 812, 821, and 822.

MASTER OF ARTS IN THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

Dr. Myron J. Houghton, Director

This major has been designed so that the person who has a basic grasp of Bible doctrine may build on that foundation and gain a greater understanding of and appreciation for the greatness of God and His revelation to people. This program examines theology from the viewpoints of what the Bible teaches, a doctrine's historical development, the various denominational formulations of that doctrine, and the various emphases and viewpoints currently held. The student may chose to emphasize systematic theology or Christian thought.

Advantages

- It increases students' understanding of major theological doctrines—their Biblical basis, historical development, and confessional configuration, providing a fundamentalist Baptist frame of reference from which to evaluate these doctrines.
- It strengthens students' awareness of the literature available in the various fields of theological study.
- It provides an exegetical foundation by a careful examination of key Biblical texts so as to create strong doctrinal convictions.
- It develops students' insight on the current theological scene with an increased appreciation for our theological heritage
- It enables students to research at the graduate level.

Program Goals

Upon successful completion of the M.A. in Theological Studies degree, students should be able to

- demonstrate an understanding of major theological doctrines—their Biblical basis, historical development, and confessional configuration;
- evaluate doctrine from a fundamentalist Baptist frame of reference;
- understand the literature available in the various fields of theological study;
- hold strong doctrinal convictions based on an exegetical foundation by a careful examination of key Biblical texts;
- grasp the current theological scene with an increased appreciation for our theological heritage; and
- Accomplish research at the graduate level.

Admission Requirements

A minimum of 30 semester hours of Bible and theology at the undergraduate level, or their equivalent, is required before admission will be granted to the M.A. in Theological Studies program. A grade point average of 3.0 or higher is expected in one's undergraduate work. Students are permitted to transfer a maximum of 12 acceptable graduate credits into this program.

Graduation Requirements

A candidate in the M.A. in Theological Studies program must have completed all courses with a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 and must have completed all requirements pertaining to the degree program. This program requires 36 hours of graduate study, at least 18 of which must be in Theological Studies. In addition to completing all classroom work and degree program requirements, the candidate must have evidenced ability in ministry, solidarity of Christian character, and definiteness of purpose to the satisfaction of the faculty.

M.A. by Module and Online Courses

MASTER OF DIVINITY

Dr. Douglas Brown, Dean

The Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree program is the standard seminary program for preparing God-called individuals to serve Him as pastors, missionaries, teachers, and other leaders in vocational church ministry.

Advantages

- It gives students a basic foundation in their understanding of Scripture.
- It helps students develop personal convictions regarding the doctrinal teaching of the Word of God.
- It encourages students to mature in their daily walk with the Lord and to increase in their love for the Scriptures.
- It helps students develop qualities of Christian character, leadership, and worldwide vision.
- It equips them to be able expositors of Scripture.
- It develops within them a love for people, especially those to whom they shall minister.

Goals

Upon successful completion of the Master of Divinity degree, students should

1. evidence a commitment to the Lord and to His work by
 - a. demonstrating to the faculty and to the students' pastors a close relationship with God;
 - b. exhibiting to the faculty and to the students' pastors exemplary Christian character, and
 - c. serving faithfully and effectively within a local church during the time of seminary enrollment.
2. evidence awareness of the history and current status of Baptist fundamentalism and demonstrate an appreciation for its distinctives by
 - a. completing courses in the history of fundamentalism and contemporary Christianity; and
 - b. developing discernment and resolute doctrinal convictions as evidenced in course assignments.

3. evidence an ability to serve effectively in vocational Christian ministry by
 - a. completing prescribed courses in church ministry;
 - b. successfully completing a ministry internship;
 - c. providing satisfactory essay answers on the ministry assessment exam;
 - d. exhibiting sensitivity to others and to their needs throughout their seminary training; and
 - e. providing satisfactory answers during the senior oral exam.
4. evidence an advanced knowledge of the Bible by
 - a. completing prescribed courses in Biblical studies and in the Biblical languages;
 - b. demonstrating increased competency on the cognitive assessment exam; and
 - c. providing satisfactory answers during the senior oral exam.
5. evidence an advanced knowledge of the systematic truths of the Bible and the history of Christianity by
 - a. completing prescribed courses in systematic theology and church history;
 - b. demonstrating increased competency on the cognitive assessment exam; and
 - c. providing satisfactory answers during the senior oral exam.
6. evidence an ability to communicate effectively the meaning of scripture by
 - a. completing prescribed courses in homiletics or pedagogy; and
 - b. preaching an exemplary senior sermon in seminary chapel that is logical in design, expository in nature, and compelling in delivery (for men only).

Admission Requirements

This program admits students with diverse college backgrounds. University, liberal arts college, and Bible college graduates are all encouraged to apply. Students are permitted to transfer a maximum of 60 acceptable graduate credits into the M.Div. program.

Graduation Requirements

Candidates must have completed at least 36 credits while in residence and at least 96 total semester credits (including all requirements pertaining to the degree) with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0. In addition to completing all classroom work, candidates must have evidenced ability in ministry, solidarity of Christian character, definiteness of purpose, and firm doctrinal convictions to the satisfaction of the faculty. Candidates should provide such evidence during their senior interviews, which are based on the accumulated contents of their assessment portfolios.

Student Assessment Portfolio

- Christian Service Evaluations. Pastors will evaluate the Christian service experiences of students every year.
- Student Perceptions and Ministry Aspirations Assessment. This assessment is completed during the annual Assessment Day of the students' first and final years. The Student Perceptions Assessment deals with seminary culture issues and provides data for institutional decision makers. This part of the assessment is taken anonymously, and it is not placed in the students' portfolios. The Ministry Aspiration Assessment gives some indication concerning student affective competencies, and it is placed in the students' portfolios.
- Ministry Case Study Exam. All second-year students take this test during the annual Assessment Day. It assesses behavioral aptitudes, and its answers are placed in the students' portfolios.
- Ministry Internship Assessment. All M.Div. students complete the requisite ministry internship/apprenticeship after the conclusion of their fourth semester of study. The chair of the Pastoral Studies Department oversees the internships. The host pastor generates a letter of evaluation ,which is included in the portfolios.
- Senior Sermon. Seniors preach a sermon in seminary chapel during the fall or spring of their senior year. These sermons are video recorded, and the professor of homiletics fills out an evaluation form. This component assesses the specific behavioral aptitude of homiletic skill. The video recordings and evaluations are placed in the students' portfolios.
- Theology Paper. Students will choose one of their theology papers to be placed in their portfolios.
- Doctrinal Statement. Students will write and submit a summary of their doctrinal beliefs which could be used for ordination or missions councils.
- Biblical Languages Exams. M.Div. seniors complete the Biblical languages exam on Assessment Day. This assessment tool tests the specific cognitive ability of language acumen. Scores are placed in the portfolios.
- Cognitive Exam. M.Div. seniors complete the cognitive exam during their final semester on the annual Assessment Day. The exam assesses cognitive ability in the areas of Biblical, pastoral, and theological studies. Scores are then compared with the scores the students achieved at matriculation.

T-SY 611 Systematic Theology I: Prolegomena and Bibliology

An examination and evaluation of introductory matters in the study of systematic theology, followed by a detailed and focused study of the doctrine of the Bible, including such topics as inspiration, revelation, inerrancy, and illumination.

Important theological viewpoints are examined and evaluated. 3 credit hours.

T-SY 612 Systematic Theology II: Theology Proper, Christology, and Pneumatology

A detailed study of the doctrine of God, including such topics as the Trinity and God's attributes, followed by a careful examination of important issues in the doctrine of Christ such as our Lord's divinity, humanity, kenosis, and incarnation.

The course will conclude with a study on the Holy Spirit, emphasizing and evaluating important issues such as the permanence of spiritual gifts, the Biblical teaching concerning the baptism of the Holy Spirit, and the work of the Spirit in the life of every believer today. 3 credit hours.

T-SY 616 Lutheran Theology

A consideration of Lutheran theology as it is found in The Book of Concord and in traditional Lutheran theology books. Emphasis is placed on the centrality of justification, the distinction between law and gospel, and sacramental theology, evaluating each of these concepts from a dispensational, fundamental Baptist view. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 621 Systematic Theology III: Angelology, Anthropology, Hamartiology, and Soteriology

A presentation of the Biblical view of angels, both good and bad, followed by a study of the doctrines of man, sin, and salvation. Includes such theological issues as the relationship of Adam to the human race, the imputation of Adam's sin, and the nature and extent of depravity. Also covers the various issues of salvation, such as the nature and extent of Christ's atonement, the meaning of foreknowledge and predestination, the distinction between justification, regeneration, and sanctification, and the nature of a believer's security. 3 credit hours.

T-SY 622 Systematic Theology IV: Ecclesiology and Eschatology

An examination and evaluation of major theological issues related to doctrines of the church including the nature and origin of the church, Baptist polity and distinctives, the plurality of elders, the organization of the church, and the ordinances of the church. This study will be followed by an examination of future events, including personal as well as corporate eschatology. Major views on the relationship of the church to the tribulation, the nature of Christ's kingdom, the number of resurrections, and the nature of the judgment seat of Christ will be examined and evaluated. 3 credit hours.

T-SY 623/M-PT 623 Baptism: Its History, Theology, and Practice

This course examines three periods of history within which the understanding, theology, and practice of baptism underwent change and development (mostly in the first two). The first period includes the New Testament era and continues until A.D. 500, especially noting its increasing sacramental quality. The second period covers the Reformation Period through the publishing of the Westminster Confession of Faith (mid-17th Century), again with its sacramental qualities in mind. The third period covers major concerns in the "Modern" period (Post-World War I until the present day). The historical approach is readily apparent. However, in each of these periods, we will explore the theology of baptism: why it was practiced, when it was given to the recipient, and what it accomplished. We will also inspect the how the rite was performed throughout these periods (practice). Of special interest will be the rise of infant baptism and its justification throughout history. We will also survey incidental developments and rites connected to baptism such as confirmation and one's view of the church.

T-SY 624 Genesis: Developing and Implementing a Biblical Worldview in Your Church

A pastor's worldview will influence how he teaches and leads his congregation and how he approaches current issues facing the church today. Under increasing pressure to compromise the truth of God, the pastor must lead others to believe, teach, and defend the literal history in Genesis 1–11, which is foundational to the gospel and biblical authority. This course provides in-depth biblical instruction and non-technical explanation of some of the overwhelming scientific evidence confirming the truth of Genesis so that the student can develop, teach, and implement a biblical worldview in his church's educational and evangelistic ministry.

T-SY 630 Seminar on C.S. Lewis: An Exploration and Evaluation

This course will study the writings of C. S. Lewis. The course will follow two themes. First, the course will allow the student to explore the writings of C. S. Lewis. Second, the course will require students to analyze and evaluation Lewis.

T-SY 631 Seminar on Jonathan Edwards: An Exploration and Evaluation

This course will study the life, writings, and influence of Jonathan Edwards. Special attention will be given to the theology of Edwards and its influence on subsequent church history, particularly among Baptists.

T-SY 640 God among the gods: A Seminar on Worldview

An introduction to the concept of worldview as well as a survey of non-Christian worldviews. Students will research and critique alternate worldviews. 2 credit hours.

T-SY 641 Theology Seminar

An overview of the basic issues in each area of theology for students who have no formal background in theological studies while at the same time helping students who have such a background to develop a system of doctrine organized around the "grace alone, faith alone" motif. 3 credit hours.

T-SY 642/M-PT 642 Issues in Ethics

A comprehensive examination of social, political, biomedical, sexual, environmental, and professional ethics. Includes an overview of the major fields of applied ethics, an analysis of contemporary ethical issues, an investigation of current tension points, and frameworks of theological engagement. 2 credit hours.

T-SY 643/M-PT 643 Human Sexuality

An examination of Wesleyan and Arminian theology as seen in their representative standard theological works. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 657 Roman Catholic Theology

A study of traditional and contemporary Roman Catholic theology, noting its theologians and their writings, official documents of the Church, and developments and changes within the Church's theology. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 663 Law and Grace

An examination of the Biblical teaching concerning law and grace as well as a study of its various interpretations within the theological spectrum. 3 credit hours.

T-SY 667 Baptist Theology

A survey of Baptist theology examining specific doctrinal topics that have drawn attention from Baptist theologians, pastors, educators, and writers. Many of these topics relate to Baptist ecclesiology. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 668 Apologetics

A study of philosophical and theological issues relative to Christian apologetics and a defense of the Christian worldview. Attention is given to the relationship between faith and reason, the existence of God, miracles and the resurrection, the reliability of the Scriptures, moral values and the meaning of life, and the problem of evil, along with the development of an apologetic methodology. 2 credit hours.

T-SY 669 Reformed Theology

A study of Reformed theology as found in the major Reformed confessions and in traditional Reformed theology books. Emphasis is placed on the five points of Calvinism, covenantal theology, and the nature, origin, and government of the church, evaluating each of these areas from a dispensational, fundamental Baptist viewpoint. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 672 Orthodox Theology

An exploration of the early history of Christianity, especially the doctrinal formulations of the first seven general church councils. The historical development of a church organization is considered followed by an examination of the role of Constantinople in relation to Rome. The major Orthodox groups in America today are also examined. Orthodox theology, practice, and spirituality are major areas of focus, including the role of tradition and icons, and a discussion of theosis, economy, and filioque. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 673 Pentecostal Theology

The historical background and development of the Pentecostal movement in America, focusing on Classical Pentecostalism (including "Oneness" Pentecostalism), the Charismatic Movement, and the "Third Wave" Vineyard Fellowship. Concentrates theologically on the Biblical teaching concerning Spirit baptism and spiritual gifts and discusses sanctification, divine healing, and eternal security. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 752 Advanced Bibliology

A detailed study of the various doctrines of the Bible including revelation, inspiration, inerrancy, canonicity, preservation, and illumination. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 754 Advanced Christology

A detailed study of the various problems related to the person of Christ including Impeccability and the hypostatic union. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 756 Advanced Theology Proper

A detailed study of the problems related to the doctrine of God the Father, including the nature of the Trinity, God's attributes, and His creative activity. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 758 Advanced Pneumatology

A detailed study of the various problems related to the person of the Holy Spirit including the charismatic movement and spiritual gifts. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 761 Advanced Soteriology: Progressive Sanctification

A detailed study of the various problems related to the doctrine of salvation including election and eternal security. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 776 Advanced Anthropology

A detailed study of selected issues concerning the doctrine of mankind, including freedom of the will and the relationship of Adam to the human race. 2 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.

T-SY 777 Advanced Eschatology

A detailed study of various issues concerning eschatology, including the various rapture theories and the Judgment Seat of Christ. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis .

T-SY 780 Advanced Ecclesiology

A detailed study of the problems related to the doctrine of the church, including the universal and local church. 3 credit hours. Offered on a rotating basis.
