

Dr. Paul Hartog

Dr. Paul Hartog is the Chair of Theological Studies at Faith Baptist Theological Seminary and a senior professor within the college and seminary. Dr. Hartog has received numerous degrees, including his Th.M. from St. Andrew's Theological College and his Ph.D. from Loyola University of Chicago. Dr. Paul has held assistant and associate pastoral positions within local churches and is also the Director of Library Services at Faith. He enjoys traveling with his sweetheart and family, visiting coffeehouses across the Des Moines metro, and researching the history of early Christianity.