Part of the deposit for the advertised tour includes a minimum of $100 per person service fee assessed by Pilgrim Tours that is non-refundable and non-transferable. The reason for not traveling can be either the traveler cancelling or the tour being postponed, suspended or cancelled due to but not limited to acts of God, war, terrorist acts, political unrest, epidemics, pandemics, or government imposed travel restrictions. In registering for a tour, a tour member agrees to the service fee as well as all terms and conditions as outlined on the tour reservation form.

In the event of a marked change in foreign exchange rates, fuel costs or tariff rates, tour costs are subject to revision. Such increases will be added to the final billing. Pilgrim Tours reserves the right to vary itineraries and prices, and to substitute facilities and hotels of equal or better quality if necessary.

RESPONSIBILITIES

These tour programs are operated by Pilgrim Tours and Travel, Inc., 3071 Main Street, Morgantown, Pennsylvania 19543. In common with other companies, Pilgrim acts only as an agent for tour members in arranging vacation services offered on this web site, including transportation, sightseeing, and accommodations through independent contractors. Air carriers, accommodations, and other suppliers (including but not limited to trains, cruises, ferries, motor coaches, hotels, tour guides, and restaurants) providing these services are independent contractors and are not agents, employees, servants, or joint ventures of the Company or its affiliates. All travel documents for services issued by the Company are subject to the terms & conditions specified by the contracted supplier and the laws of the countries in which the services are supplied. Tours postponed, suspended, or cancelled due to but not limited to acts of God, war, terrorist acts, political unrest, epidemics, or pandemics are subject to service fees by Pilgrim Tours and any supplier penalties. In registering for a tour, tour members agree to the terms and conditions for the tour they have registered for. Pilgrim Tours reserves the right in its sole discretion to make changes in the itinerary and is not responsible for expenses, loss of time, money, or other incidents resulting from a change of tour scheduling made for tour members. Pilgrim Tours is not responsible for any losses or damages of personal property, injuries, thefts, or unforeseen expenses incurred by any tour member.

AIR TRANSPORTATION

For your convenience, Pilgrim Tours is happy to book your airfare as part of a group air contract which allows the group to fly together at a set price. A group air contract requires a minimum of 10 passengers flying roundtrip from the same city, on the same air schedule, and on the same dates. Pilgrim Tours does not have the ability to guarantee assigned seating when making group air arrangements. Air carriers are responsible for seat assignments, and most group air contracts assign seats at the airport check-in on the day of departure. Once ticketed, group air tickets are not upgradable to premium economy or business class, and mileage credit is not guaranteed and is subject to the rules of each airline. If interested in an upgrade, please notify Pilgrim Tours at time of deposit and no later than 100 days before travel. All taxes, fuel charges, and security fees are subject to change based on the ticketing date. Passengers wishing to cancel or change their air reservations may be subject to change fees or cancellation penalties. Pilgrim Tours is not responsible for unforeseen flight delays or changes due to war, political unrest, acts of God, epidemics, or pandemics. Air schedules may be subject to change at the discretion of the airline. Pilgrim Tours does not accept liability in the case of any passenger being denied boarding by any airline carrier due to the carrier's overbooking of a flight.

TOUR MEMBERSHIP & MOBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Tour membership is available to all travelers and will not be withheld if the tour operator can furnish the requirements that an individual may need. Because most of our Retail Tour sightseeing schedules require Tour Members to walk 1-2 miles at a time using a moderate pace and sometimes navigate uneven terrain, we cannot accept persons who cannot do that and instead require special assistance. Should any Tour Member's participation somehow materially add to the tour operator's cost, the Tour Member will be expected to pay any additional costs. The Tour Director retains the right to require any non-sufficiently mobile persons to stay behind when deemed necessary, and also terminate the membership of any member displaying disruptive behavior, delaying or endangering fellow members and/or interfering with the operations of the tour. Private group tours vary in regards to mobility standards.

PROOF OF US CITIZENSHIP, PASSPORT, VISA & MINOR CHILDREN REQUIREMENTS

All international tours require a current passport. Entrance to most countries requires your passport be valid for 6 months after your return date. Your passport information must be recorded by a Pilgrim Tours agent when making your reservation. Names on airline tickets must appear as shown on passport. Photocopies are not acceptable forms of identification. Minors traveling with either one parent or no parents must have a certified letter of permission from the parent or parents who is/are not traveling. If requested, this letter must be presented. Non U. S. Citizens are responsible to fulfill appropriate entry requirements of the destination country. Contact the local Consulate of the countries you plan to visit and transit for entry requirement information.

BAGGAGE

Although every effort is made to handle passengers' luggage as carefully as possible, Pilgrim Tours is not responsible for and does not assume liability or accept claims for loss of or damage to luggage due to breakage, theft or wear and tear through hotel, group carrier or airline handling. There are limitations by coach and air carrier as to the number and size of bags which can be carried onboard and in bulk storage. However, during the tour, passengers are permitted one checked suitcase and one carry-on bag unless otherwise noted. Some airlines may impose additional charges if you choose to check any baggage. Please contact the airline or refer to the airlines website for detailed information regarding checked baggage policies. This is a fee levied by the airlines, not Pilgrim Tours, and may be subject to change.

TRAVEL INSURANCE - AVAILABLE FOR ALL PASSENGERS

Pilgrim Tours strongly suggests purchasing a travel insurance plan. Be sure to check with your health insurance provider as many US medical coverage plans may not cover you outside of the country. Insurance costs are based on the total tour cost, including air taxes and charges listed under "Not Included." These charges are added to the final billing. Approximate amounts can be given at time of reservation in order to purchase the appropriate amount of insurance. Travel Insurance is non-refundable.

Day 1 – Tuesday, Feb. 16: Departure

Today we embark on our Journey to the Holy Land. Prepare yourself for a life-changing experience. Get some rest on the flight... Tomorrow you will be walking where Jesus walked!

Day 2 – Wednesday, Feb. 17: Arrive Israel

Arrive in Israel and travel northward to our hotel for one night in the coastal area near Tel Aviv. After meeting our guide and driver, we make our way along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea to our seaside hotel for dinner and overnight.

Day 3 – Thursday, Feb. 18: Caesarea, Mt. Carmel, Nazareth, Mt. Precipice

This morning we journey to nearby Caesarea, where Gentiles first heard the Good News from Peter and were baptized. We'll see the Roman Amphitheatre, hippodrome, a film on history and remains of this famous port city, before journeying on to Mt. Carmel, where Elijah challenged King Ahab and the prophets of Baal. Next we travel through the Jezreel Valley past Megiddo, the Armageddon Battlefield, before a stop in Nazareth where we visit the Nazareth Village - a wonderful recreation of Biblical times with costumed guides. Nearby is Mount Precipice, traditionally believed to be where an angry mob attempted to throw Jesus off a cliff after He stated that He was the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy. We then transfer to our hotel where we will have dinner and overnight lodging for the next two nights in the Tiberias area on the Sea of Galilee.

Day 4 – Friday, Feb. 19: Tel Dan, Caesarea Philippi, Capernaum, Galilee Boat Ride, Magdala

Following breakfast, we journey north to two valuable sites. Dan is where the children of Israel fell to the depths of alternative sacrifice and Caesarea Philippi, the site of Peter's Confession and pagan worship. Our time here includes the ruins of Herod Agrippa II's palace. Enjoy a lovely nature walk to Baniyas Falls before returning to south to Tiberias where we visit Capernaum, around which much of Jesus' ministry was centered. After viewing the excavations and Peter's home, we enjoy a relaxing boat cruise and special time of worship. We end our day with a visit to Magdala, hometown of Mary Magdalene. The recent excavation of the First Century Synagogue and well-preserved village makes Magdala one of the most interesting Biblical sites in Israel.

Day 5 – Saturday, Feb. 20: Mt. of Beatitudes, Gideon's Spring, Beth Shean, Dead Sea

Our day begins at the Mt. of the Beatitudes where Jesus preached His Sermon on the Mount before then making our way south for a brief visit to Gideon's Spring. This is the place where God chose out the three hundred men whom Gideon was to lead to battle against the Midianites. Our next stop is Beth Shean, the most magnificent archeological site in Israel, located at the strategic juncture of the Jezreel and Jordan valleys. Known as Scythopolis in Jesus' time, it was a chief city of Decapolis and boasts impressive Roman ruins. Continuing south along the Jordan River Valley (Qeser El Yehud) we see the Israeli side of Bethany Beyond the Jordan. In this area Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist, Elijah and Elisha crossed the Jordan, as well as where the children of Israel, led by Joshua, entered the Promised Land. Our lodging for the evening is at the Dead Sea – the lowest place on earth. Spend time in the special spa and enjoy a dip in the Dead Sea for a relaxing float before dinner.

Day 6 – Sunday, Feb. 21: Masada, Ein Gedi, Qumran, Abraham's Tent, Jericho, Mt. Scopus

Our day begins with a cable car ride to the mountain top fortress of Masada. Here our guide will treat us to the history of the famous zealot stand. Afterwards we proceed to Ein Gedi, "Spring of the Goat," an oasis on the western shore of the Dead Sea. Because of its warm climate and abundant supply of water, the site developed a reputation for its fragrant plants and date palm groves. This is where King David hid from Saul, and where God defeated the enemies of the Israelites by praise and worship led by King Jehoshaphat. Next, we make a brief photo stop to see the Qumran Caves where the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered. For lunch today, will take part in the Genesis Land/Dinner in Abraham's Tent, where we enjoy a trip back in time: a reliving of life in the time of the Patriarchs, complete with costume, dramatic presentation, camel ride and authentic food. We then enter ancient Tel Jericho to see remains of fallen walls and view the Mount of Temptation where Satan tempted Jesus. Arriving in Jerusalem this evening, we get our first glimpse of the Holy City from atop Mt. Scopus. We will overnight in Jerusalem for the next three evenings.

Day 7 – Monday, Feb. 22: Hezekiah's Tunnel, Jewish Quarter, Temple Institute, Wailing Wall, Western Wall Tunnels, St. Stephen's Gate, St. Anne's Church, Pool of Bethesda

This morning starts with the option (for those who don't mind tight spaces) to take a water walk through the incredible Hezekiah's Tunnel to the pool of Siloam, the place of Jesus' miracle in John 9. Ascending to the Jewish Quarter we see the gold Menorah built for the next Temple, the Temple Institute, the Burnt House, a wall built by King Hezekiah, and the Roman Cardo. Next we will visit the Wailing Wall and then the fascinating Rabbinical Tunnels leading us through the Second Temple era. The tunnel and exhibit give a clear understanding of the amazing construction of the Temple Mount, giant stones, water supply and Roman street where our Lord was led to judgment. We will also see the immense cornerstone rejected by the builders. Upon exiting the tunnel, we will be able to see St. Stephen's Gate, St. Anne's Church, and the Pool of Bethesda.

Day 8 – Tuesday, Feb. 23: Bethlehem, Elah Valley, Tel Azekah, Temple Mount, Caiphas' House

Our morning begins in Bethlehem, the City of David, where we visit the Church of the Nativity as well as the Shepherds Field outside the city. We then continue west of Jerusalem to the Elah Valley. From Tel Azekah, we have a perfect view of the valley where David fought Goliath. Returning to the city, if conditions permit, we will visit the Temple Mount, with commentary on the Temple Periods, and the variety of belief systems past and present that make this area so valuable. Next we spend time at the House of Caiaphas where Jesus was beaten and spit upon. See a pit where he may have been held for the evening and the ancient hillside steps he walked as he was taken to be condemned.

Day 9 – Wednesday, Feb. 24: Mt. of Olives, Gethsemane, Via Dolorosa, Garden Tomb, Evening Flight to London

We start our day on the Mount of Olives to take in the panoramic view of Jerusalem and then continue on to the Garden of Gethsemane to walk among the ancient olive trees and be reminded of Jesus' time of prayer and agony here in the garden. We walk a portion of the Via Dolorosa (way of the cross), stopping to visit the Church of the Holy Sepulcher and also Dominus Flevit, where Jesus mourned for Jerusalem. We end our day at the Garden Tomb where we celebrate the resurrection with communion and a time of praise. Following an early dinner together as a group, either in Jerusalem or Tel Aviv, we will transfer to the Tel Aviv Airport for a late flight to London.

Day 10 – Thursday, Feb. 25: Arrive London, Tower of London, Spurgeon's Metropolitan Tabernacle

We will arrive London in the very early morning and will transfer straight to our hotel to check in and get some sleep. No morning touring is planned, so we can sleep in then enjoy breakfast before beginning our afternoon tour of the Tower of London, including the Crown Jewels. After this we visit the Metropolitan Tabernacle, where the great Baptist preacher Charles Spurgeon (1834-1892) held his great revival meetings. He preached to as many as 6,000 people every Sunday, with copies of his sermons printed and distributed worldwide. During his lifetime he preached to an estimated ten million people. It's still a thriving congregation in the center of London. Enjoy purchasing dinner this evening at a restaurant of your choice.

Day 11 – Friday, Feb. 26: St. Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Abbey, Free Time

We begin our day at St. Paul's Cathedral, a marvelous building designed by Sir Christopher Wren and recently renovated to its former splendor. We continue to magnificent Westminster Abbey where most British Kings and Queens since 1066 have been crowned and it's the final resting place of many monarchs, heroes and poets. Although not open to the public now, we will learn about historic events in the Jerusalem Chamber. It was used by the 17 men who translated the first third of the King James Bible Old Testament and the last half of the New Testament. Between 1644 and 1647, the Westminster Assembly met here to prepare the Westminster Confession of Faith. The rest of the day is at leisure to explore London at your own pace, do some shopping, and purchase dinner on your own.

Day 12 – Saturday, Feb. 27 – Return Home

We transfer to the London Airport today for our journey home.
